Notice to Subscribers

During recent years publishers have been obliged to consider seriously questions brought about by the increased cost of manufacture.

The total income of the American Journal of Semitic Languages and Literatures, including subscriptions and the contributions of the University and of individuals, is practically the same from year to year, while the cost of labor, paper, printing, and publishing has become constantly greater.

The cost of production could be reduced by cutting down the number of pages per volume, but this would detract from the dignity and value of the magazine. Therefore to meet the demands of changed conditions and maintain the relative efficiency of the Journal it has been decided to raise the present subscription price.

Accordingly, beginning with July 1, 1920, the price of the American Journal of Semitic Languages and Literatures will be $5.00 a year for domestic subscriptions; single numbers will be $1.25 each. On all subscriptions received prior to July 1, the Journal will be supplied at the old rate.

Postage charges will continue as follows: For Canada, 15 cents on annual subscriptions (total $5.15), on single numbers 4 cents (total $1.29); for all other countries in the Postal Union, 26 cents on annual subscriptions (total $5.26), on single numbers 9 cents (total $1.34).

NEW BOOKS

An Introduction to the Peace Treaties. By ARTHUR PEARSON SCOTT, Assistant Professor of History, the University of Chicago. $2.00, postpaid $2.15. In the present crisis every intelligent American should know what is in the Peace Treaty and why it is there. This book gives valuable information regarding the causes of the war, the aims of the belligerents, the peace proposals, and the framing of the Treaty of Peace. It is also a comprehensive explanation of the League of Nations.

The Great Awakening in the Middle Colonies. By CHARLES H. MAXSON, Assistant Professor of Political Science, the University of Pennsylvania. $1.25, postpaid $1.40. In the middle of the eighteenth century a tidal wave of religious fervor and reforming zeal swept over the British colonies in America, which the friends of the revival and their descendants called the Great Awakening. The author shows that religious forces liberated at that time have been of great importance in making the American people.

A Short History of Belgium. By LÉON VAN DER ESSEN, Professor of History in the University of Louvain. $1.50, postpaid $1.60. In this new and enlarged edition the author tells in an interesting way of the formation, struggles, and triumphs of the little kingdom; presents additional material on the reign of Leopold II; and describes the heroic nation's part in the Great War.

A Field and Laboratory Guide in Physical Nature-Study. By ELLIOT R. DOWNING, Associate Professor of Natural Science in the School of Education, the University of Chicago. Loose-leaf, 110 pages of text, interleaved, paper covers; $1.00, postpaid $1.10. Tells how to make toys that work by air, heat, electricity, light, and other physical agencies. The child learns the principles without effort while he is absorbed in making the toys. Also tells about the common minerals and rocks and the stars that are the wonder of every child.

The Geography of the Ozark Highland of Missouri. By CARL ORTWIN SAUER, the University of Michigan. $3.00, postpaid $3.15. The purpose of such a study is twofold: to furnish an adequate explanation of the conditions of life in a given area, and to contribute proved statements which will aid in working out fundamental principles. A valuable feature of the volume is the forty-four figures in the text and twenty-six plates.

Current Economic Problems (Revised Edition). Edited by WALTON H. HAMILTON, Professor of Economic Institutions, Amherst College. $4.00, postpaid $4.25. A selection of readings from the widest range of sources. The revision presents new material made available as a result of the war, and the new point of view brought about by the war in many lines of thinking on economic subjects.

Problems of Fertilization. By FRANK R. LILLIE, University of Chicago. $1.75, postpaid $1.90. As the problem of fertilization deals with the union of male and female sex elements, which forms the beginning of each individual's life-history, it has important bearings upon the problems of heredity. It also has close relations to several other fundamental biological problems.

The Revelation of John. Is the Book of Revelation a Mystery to You? By SHIRLEY J. CASE, Professor of Early Church History and New Testament, the University of Chicago. $2.75, postpaid $2.90. This is a popular presentation of the subject and not a technical commentary. The author tells why and when the book was written.

Revised Edition

Two new chapters have been added: "The Religion of the Celts and Teutons" and "The Unfolding of the Idea of God in the Religions of the World."

THE RELIGIONS OF THE WORLD

By GEORGE A. BARTON

Professor of Biblical Literature and Semitic Languages in Bryn Mawr College

Professor Barton's book fills a long-felt need in the field of comparative religion for a collection of facts which are suitable for the general reader. The book deals with the origin, history, and principal teachings of all the great religions. The author points out those characteristics of Christianity which make it destined to be the universal religion, and the result of the study should be a greater respect for all religions with a supreme allegiance to Christianity.

The Spread of Christianity in the Modern World

A Survey of the History of Missions since the Beginning of the Modern Era

By EDWARD CALDWELL MOORE

*Plummer Professor of Christian Morals
Harvard University*

¶ Attempting a survey of the history of missions since the beginning of the modern era, about 1757, the author depicts the missionary movement against the background of general history. He sets forth the relation of missionary endeavor to contemporary conditions, political and commercial, social and intellectual. He shows the part which missions have played in making the modern world what it is, and the part which the modern world with all its manifold elements and complex tendencies has had in making modern missions what they are.

THE ARMENIAN AWAKENING

By LEON ARPEE

Beginning with the "Dark Ages" of Armenian history, the author traces the religious attitude and the struggles of this people from the time of the introduction of Christianity into their midst by Gregory the Illuminator.

It is a matter of common knowledge to all who are familiar with the Armenian struggle for religious freedom, that political forces have been a strong factor in the persecution to which this people has been periodically subjected. All the side lights which the condition of European politics could throw on the situation have been employed by the author, and his sympathetic treatment leaves the reader with a clear understanding of the various motives for the frequent outbreaks against the Armenians, which have aroused the Christian world.
